Bull Realty Adds Two Commercial Brokers

ATLANTA (August 1, 2018) —Two more commercial real estate professionals join Bull Realty’s Atlanta office.

Preston Blair specializes in retail investment acquisitions and dispositions throughout the Southeast. He joined Bull Realty as a member of the Business Development team where he trained under CEO and Managing Broker, Michael Bull. Mr. Blair attended the University of Mississippi where he studied business. He is a Certified Commercial Investment Member (CCIM) candidate, a member of the Real Estate Group of Atlanta (REGA) and the International Council of Shopping Centers (ICSC).

Vincent Tucci serves clients in various commercial real estate endeavors with a special focus on self-storage properties. Prior to investment real estate services, Vincent developed and managed successful institutional, retail and affluent client relationships while leading effective Securities and Derivatives Operations teams for major Investment Management Companies, Large Commercial Banks, Hedge Funds, and Broker/Dealers. He is a member of the Atlanta Board of Realtors (ACBR), the Georgia Self Storage Association (GASSA) and is a Certified Commercial Investment Member candidate (CCIM).

“We are excited to add these talented brokers and continue to grow the firm,” said Michael Bull, CEO of Bull Realty.
