Bull Realty Arranges Sale of 105-Acre Redevelopment Site in LaGrange, GA

Atlanta — John DeYonker, a Partner at Bull Realty and President of Land Development Services, brokered the sale of 105 acres for redevelopment in LaGrange, GA. The property, which previously hosted a golf course and American Legion Post, sold to Hamilton LaGrange, LLC, whose managing partner, Bryan H. Flint, is an Atlanta based developer for an undisclosed amount on September 14th, 2022. Plans for the site include an apartment complex of approximately 260 garden style apartments and 470 townhomes. Bull Realty was selected to exclusively market the property and represented the seller Redrose Holdings, LLC and was the only broker involved in the transaction.

“The developer had some governmental hurdles to overcome but construction should begin in the next 30-60 days and will add much needed housing in LaGrange,” said DeYonker.
