Tyler McKee Joins Bull Realty As Vice President Self Storage Group

ATLANTA, GA.—Bull Realty welcomes commercial real estate agent, Tyler McKee, as an addition to the firm’s growing self storage group. Tyler specializes in the acquisition and disposition of self storage properties, bringing professionalism and drive to his business that can easily correlate to both buyers and sellers alike.

A native to San Diego, Tyler received his master’s degree at Azusa Pacific University while in the graduate assistant role for the University of San Diego baseball program. He obtained his graduate degree at Doane University in Nebraska where he played collegiate baseball. Outside of work he enjoys playing golf, college football and being around the water.

“It was a no brainer for me when the opportunity presented itself to join Bull Realty, as it is the type of firm you are looking for when you want to compete, perform, and excel at the highest level. Not only do I get to build off a great infrastructure and team but I get to do it in the self-storage industry that I am truly passionate about and believe in. Those values are extremely important to me when presenting opportunities and advising clients,” said McKee.

The Self Storage Group at Bull Realty assists clients with self storage property dispositions, acquisitions, equity, debt and site selection. Bull Realty is a commercial real estate brokerage firm founded in Atlanta 23 years ago. The full-service firm is best known for investment property sales in the southeast U.S.
